

U.P. still making big profits, still sacrificing worker safety

Union Pacific has more than enough cash to protect its workers from Covid-19. Even during the Pandemic, U.P. stock price is at record highs (see above). In 2019, U.P. made $228,107 in profits per employee!

While the BMWED has urged Management for common-sense Covid-19 safety precautions, U.P. has returned escalating profits to shareholders. Recently, they went to court and got a judge to temporarily stop us from refusing to work in unsafe conditions. On January 5th, the judge will hold another hearing.

For now the judge has ordered us to keep working, so we will. Stay tuned.
