The BMWED has now lost three Brothers on BNSF to Covid-19 – Roger Williams, Delbert Nez, and Gregory Howell. Dozens more have been infected or hospitalized.

One way to keep the property safe from viral spread is continuation of pay for workers who've been exposed, or who have symptoms. BNSF has more than enough cash on hand to provide full quarantine pay during the Pandemic. But they would rather return massive profits to big share-holders while we suffer.

The BMWED has urged BNSF Management to do the right thing. If Management does not step up, we will escalate. Stay tuned.
