

A Time to Heal

In the wake of the deadly train crash and chlorine leak that claimed nine lives, including Christopher Seeling, BLET Division 85 Secretary-Treasurer, let's join together to pray for healing and seek ways to protect the safety of those who work on and live near the rail lines.

Join with members of the faith community, area residents, and other rail workers at this important gathering at the Leavelle McCampbell Middle School in Graniteville.

What: Prayer Vigil/Town Hall Meeting

When: 4-6 p.m. Sunday, February 27, 2005

Where: Leavelle McCampbell Middle School
82 Canal Street
Graniteville, S.C.

Who: Pastors Cleo & Reta Boyd, Prophetic Team Ministries

Pastor Willie Campbell and Pastor Tracy Lott, Grace Deliverance

Fred Millar, Hazmat Transportation and Homeland Security Consultant

Rail Union Members and Representatives

Teamsters Rail Conference

